NURSING BRAS

Introduction to Bravado Designs

A pregnant woman with long brown hair, wearing a pink sports bra and a grey long-sleeved shirt, is holding a baby wrapped in a white blanket. She is looking down at the baby with a gentle expression. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

HOW TO MEASURE YOUR BRA SIZE?

Step 1: Over Bust Measurement

Measure your chest above your breasts - make sure the tape is around your back and under your armpits. Check in the mirror to ensure the measuring tape is parallel to the floor along your back. The tape should be snug around your body without any fingers underneath the tape. If you are in between band sizes, round up or down to the nearest even number. This will be your rib band size (34, 36 etc.).

Step 2: Bust Measurement

Measure around the fullest part of your breasts, over your nipple area. This is a looser measurement than the rib band measurement. While holding both ends of the tape with one hand at the side of your breast, use your free hand to press the measuring tape in between your breasts to your chest. This will provide a more accurate cup size.

Step 3: Calculate Your Size

Full Bust Measurement - Band Size

Designed by Bravado, Tested by Moms

We are passionate about design. Each Bravado Designs nursing bra takes into account endless details for the perfect fit, from the first time you put it on and every time thereafter.

By the time she slips into one of our nursing bras or tanks, it's gone through its paces as part of our unique Test Wear Program.

We invite hundreds of moms, who range in body type and breast sizes, to help us perfect our designs based on real-life around-the-clock use.
